

Please allow more time for public comment regarding broadcast ownership. The airwaves belong to the people and are the source of information that allows democracy to function. The free flow of information with varied opinions represents true freedom and democracy. Limited ownership means limited information to the public. Do not allow the large media corporations to control what information is provided to the public.